

As you can see, those 12 blue marked segments can be closed by holding down your left mouse button, and dragging it over the note you wish to change. And with the help of the <--|--> button, you can change the length of the note manually. But with the Q button (quantize) function, you can save yourself a lot of work, I will show you some of the functions below.